

Getting to Worcester College:

- Travelling and ground transportation will be arranged by each participant
- There are regular frequent bus services to Oxford from the main airports in London
- From the bus station, Worcester College is a short distance by foot (200m)

Oxford Aneurysm Treatment School

Oxford Neurovascular and Neuroradiology
Research Unit
Nuffield Department of Surgical Sciences
University of Oxford

9th - 12th April 2014

With the support of

stryker
Neurovascular

Course Description:

- This classic residential course directed by Prof. James Byrne, Nuffield Department of Surgical Sciences, University of Oxford, is designed as an introduction for physicians who intend to obtain primary training in the endovascular treatment of intracranial aneurysms
- A structured program of lectures, tutorials and demonstrations in current endovascular treatment methods of aneurysms
- In 2014 the course offers practical training based on virtual reality systems, and product hands-on
- Held in English, the course is limited to a maximum of 30 attendees in a unique teaching environment dedicated to excellence in theoretical and practical teaching of current standards of aneurysm embolisation

Course Organisation:

Course Organisers:

- Prof. James Byrne, Oxford, UK (Course Director)
- Alison Clarke Oxford, UK (Organiser)

Faculty:

- Prof. Istvan Szikora, Budapest, Hungary
- Dr. Jan Gralla Bern, Switzerland
- Prof. Isabel Wanke Zurich, Switzerland
- Dr. Paul Giangrande Oxford, UK
- Dr. John Millar Southampton, UK

Venue:

Worcester College
Walton Street
Oxford
OX1 2HB

Registration:

For all registrations and reservations via e-mail to Alison Clarke:
alison.clarke@nds.ox.ac.uk

Board and Lodging:

Accommodation will be provided to all participants at Worcester College

College accommodation is non-smoking

Registration Fee £1150 (+VAT) includes:

Course Fee
Accommodation in College
All meals during the Course